

FINAL EXAM COMP 352 AA 221 I

Seat Number
N/A

Exam Duration
3 hours

Instructions

Although this is an open book exam you are not allowed to make use of internet searches. According to our course outline every form of plagiarism, e.g., collaboration or copying from internet or other sources, will be reported to the Dean's office.

Some of the essay questions require you to create drawings and upload them to COLE within your given exam time frame. Once the exam is closed it is not possible anymore to change answers or upload documents.

- 1) This exam is open-book, worth a total of 180 points, and 3-hour in duration.
- 2) You may use the course textbook, course handouts, lecture notes, course sample problems and solutions, and your own class notes from the lectures.
- 3) You are not allowed to use the internet during the exam.
- 4) The exam consists of 21 multiple choice questions, each being worth 4 points, for a total of 84 points.
- 5) The exam consists of 8 written questions, each being worth between 10 and 20 points, for a total of 96 points.
- 6) You may upload only one PDF file per written question.
- 7) You may use a calculator for carrying out numerical computations.
- 8) Important Note: Once the exam is closed, it will not be possible to change answers or upload documents.

1. To start your exam, please select 'start attempt' at the bottom of the page.
2. Carefully read all instructions given.
3. Online searching of subject material/related exam questions is not permitted.
4. Communicating with classmates regarding any aspect of the exam or course once you begin the exam is not permitted.
5. Posting or sharing the exam content, including exam questions, or your answers both during and after submission is not permitted.
6. Once complete, select 'submit all and finish' on the last page of the exam.

Authorised Materials

Copyright notice

The present exam and the contents thereof are the property and copyright of the professor(s) who prepared this exam at Concordia University. No part of the present exam may be used for any purpose other than research or teaching purposes at Concordia University. Furthermore, no part of the present exam may be sold, reproduced, republished or re-disseminated in any manner or form without the prior written permission of its owner and copyright holder.

Terms and conditions

You are about to enter into an online exam environment. If you are taking a proctored exam, you must have your Concordia ID card or, failing that, government issued ID readily accessible.

Before you access the exam, you must make sure that you meet all technological and logistical requirements. Read the FAQ about online exams without proctoring or the FAQ about online exams with proctoring, depending on the exam you are about to take. They contain important information and you are strongly encouraged to review that information prior to your exam.

The academic integrity standards applicable to you during this exam are identical to those applicable in an in-person exam. If it is suspected that you did not respect those standards, you may be charged under the Academic Code of Conduct. It is your responsibility to ensure that you remove anything from your exam environment that can be perceived to be unauthorized materials during the exam. Material that you are allowed to use during the exam are mentioned above.

By entering the exam, you represent and warrant that you are the person whose name is associated with the login used in COLE. You affirm that you have had the opportunity to review and that you understand the Academic Code of Conduct.

If you require support during the exam, please call 1-888-202-8615 as soon as possible.